Parents:

Again we would like to send out a huge THANK YOU! for all of our yummy treats, wonderful cards, and amazing gifts we received during Teacher Appreciation Week. You are the most thoughtful, caring parents ever! This month we are getting ready for our Summer Camp(filled with fun Our school year will be coming to an end soon and the children have learned so much throughout the year. We are confident that they will be ready to embark on their new adventures. We are so proud of them, and we feel truly blessed to have you and your child as a part of our class this year. Ms. Alicia and I would like to thank all of you for your support, and donations throughout the school year. We love you and we will miss you dearly! Thank you,
